

Unit 1 Lesson 2 Resident's Rights Worksheet

1. What law protects the rights of residents in nursing homes?

2. When and how is a resident required to be informed of their rights?

3. What is the purpose of OBRA?

Based on the Bill of Rights, circle T if the following statement is true and F if it is false.

- 4. T F A resident can refuse treatment of a doctor.
- 5. T F Residents can take care of their own personal finances.
- 6. T F Residents may only have visitors on holidays.
- 7. T F You should listen to all telephone conversations of a resident.
- 8. T F Consent is needed for someone not directly involved with the care of a resident to observe a treatment.

9. Which of the following is an example of treating a resident with dignity and respect?

- A. Entering a room without knocking or announcing yourself.
- B. Leaving the room door open for extra ventilation when a resident is in the bathroom.
- C. Shouting very loud to make sure the resident understands your directions.
- D. Helping the resident choose their clothing for the day.

10. Which of the following is an invasion of privacy?

- A. Covering the resident with a drape during a procedure
- B. Putting a screen around the resident's bed
- C. Knocking on the door before entering
- D. Talking about a resident's personal problems with your neighbor