

Unit 2 Lesson 3 - Recognizing and Correcting Safety Hazards

Vocabulary Word

Definition

1. accident	something that happens unexpectedly and is unfortunate or undesirable
2. alarm	sound or warning of danger
3. alternative	used in place of something else
4. blizzard	violent and heavy snowstorm
5. burn	injury made by fire
6. cyanotic	blue coloring seen in nails, lips, and skin because of lack of oxygen
7. danger	chance of harm, exposure to injury or lose of life
8. defective	imperfect, faulty
9. difficult	not easy; hard to understand or do
10. disaster	sudden event (such as a storm) that causes great damage
11. exit	ways to leave a building or room
12. fire	burning with flames, heat, light
13. flame	glowing part of a fire
14. flammable	easily set on fire and capable of burning quickly
15. floor plan	drawing showing rooms inside a building
16. frayed	area that is worn or used beyond it's normal wear

17. improper	incorrect or not right
18. injury	place where someone is hurt or wounded
19. MSDS Material Safety Data Sheets	information in a book that shows the contents of all substances used in the workplace that might be considered hazardous
20. nonskid	not able to slip
21. odor	smell
22. OSHA Occupational Safety and Health Administration	federal agency that protects the safety of workers
23. oxygen tank	green tank (small portable or large tank) filled with oxygen to be used with mask or hose
24. R.A.C.E.	Rescue - Alarm/alert - Contain fire - Extinguish or Evacuate
25. risk factors	things that may make cause injury or illness
26. rubbish	waste material; trash; garbage
27. safety	being safe, freedom from danger
28. source	place from which something comes from
29. spark	tiny glow from a burning fire
30. tornado	violent destructive whirlwind
31. unsafe	potential for danger or injury