

Unit 5 Lesson 3

Intake and Output

Vocabulary

Definition

1. calibration	the process of checking an instrument to make sure it is accurate
2. cc cubic centimeter	metric measurement commonly used to measure fluid
3. container	any object that can hold something
4. edema	swelling that occurs when fluid intake exceeds fluid output
5. equal	the same
6. excess	too much
7. imbalance	lack of balance that results in a problem
8. I & O intake and output	measurement of fluid intake and output to evaluate fluid balance and kidney function
9. intake	amount of food or water that goes into a body
10. intervention	to stop someone from doing something
11. ml milliliters	metric measurement often used to measure fluid
12. NPO Nothing By Mouth	Special orders given that mean the person cannot eat or drink anything
13. output	amount produced or given off
14. solid	not liquid
15. total	final number of things when everything has been counted