

Unit 5 Lesson 4

Obtaining a Specimen

Vocabulary

Definition

1. amount	a quantity of something, such as time, money, or a substance
2. attitude	the way you behave towards someone or the way you behave in a particular situation
3. bowel	the system of tubes inside your body where food is made into solid waste material and through which it passes out of your body
4. burning	feeling very hot like on fire
5. clearly	in a way that is easy to see, hear or understand
6. drainage	the way that water or waste flows away
7. immobile	not able to move
8. kinked	a twist in something that should be straight
9. lab slip (paper)	information about a person's test results
10. label	words on an object that identify it
11. looped	a loose knot in a rope or tube
12. method	a planned way of doing something
13. requisition	something that is asked for or requested
14. seepage	a gradual flow of liquid from a small space; leakage
15. specimen	a sample
16. technique	a way to do something

17. tender	a part of your body is tender if it is painful when someone touches it
18. taut	pulled straight or firm so that it cannot move; tight
19. tap water	water that comes out of the pipes or faucet