

Unit 6 Lesson 3	VERBS
Terminal Illness and Death
Verb	Definition
1. believe	to think that something is effective or right
2. close	1. to shut something in order to close an opening 2. to move the parts of something together so that is no longer a space 3. to end or make something end
3. handle	the way in which someone does a job or deals with a situation, problem, or person
4. living will	Document that tells doctors: not to start measures that prolong dying and to remove measures that prolong dying
5. prolong	to deliberately make something last longer
6. pronounced	to officially state that something is true
7. replace	to change an old or used article with a new or clean article
8. verbalize	to say something in words